Cross Strait Enterprise Development

Instructor: Dr. Shinn-Shyr Wang, Prof. of the Department of Economics, NCCU
Office: Room 271542, 15F General Building South
Phone: 886-2-29393091 ex 51542
Email: sswang@nccu.edu.tw
Office Hours: by appointment

Course Objectives

This course provides an overview and comparison of the modern Taiwanese and Chinese economies, and discusses several important aspects of the growth and development of these two economies, with a focus on industrial structural changes. The topics covered include the major shifts in economic philosophy through time, agricultural and rural industrialization, and economic development of urban areas, macroeconomic trends, as well as challenges facing Taiwan and China today.

Course Outline

Lecture 1: Introduction of the economic relationship across the Taiwan Strait
Lecture 2: The development of SOEs and SMEs in Taiwan
Lecture 3: The development of SOEs in mainland China
Lecture 4: The development of TVEs in mainland China
Lecture 5: The future development of relationship of SOEs and SMEs across the Taiwan Strait

Course Requirements

Your class participation is required. Please make every effort to be on time for class. In addition, there will be an essay assignment. You are expected to choose a topic related to what are covered in this course and apply what you learn to analyze it as comprehensively as possible. More details about the assignment will be available in the first lecture.

References

